

- March 30, 1968, edition of the New York Daily News:

In a story headlined, "Biên Hòa Defense Likened to Famed Fight at Alamo"

Captain Marty E. Strones, who also earned a Silver Star for his heroics at Biên Hòa, said, "The bunker would have started running out of ammunition, but one of our ammunition drivers, SSgt William Piazza, heard they were in trouble and drove through enemy positions to supply the beleaguered bunker. This made it possible for them to hold out.

- Chaplain Sheehan, in his VSPA article cited earlier, wrote:

"The bravery of the men in Bunker Hill-10 was matched by the incredible valor of other men of the 3rd SPS. SSgts William Piazza and James Lee did the impossible and through a withering field of enemy fire drove a truck ...across what would seem an impassable field—a field alive with VC. The men dauntlessly drove right up to the besieged Bunker Hill-10, and under constant enemy fire resupplied the defenders of the bunker with enough ammunition to enable them to continue the fight. When one knows the terrain these men passed through, and remembers the confusion at the time, and the danger of their cargo, he stands in awe at their courageous feat. It seems impossible. But brave men made the impossible, possible."
