

56th Security Police Squadron

On May 12, 1975, just 12 days after US forces pulled out of Vietnam, the SS Mayaguez, U.S. cargo ship, drifted into Cambodian waters in the Gulf of Thailand and was captured by Khmer Rouge communist and who forced it to sail to Kohtang Island with crew. When negotiations failed President Ford ordered a rescue mission to liberate the crew and return the ship to U.S. control.

Helicopters with 125 Security Police from 56th Special Operations Wing stationed on Nakhon Phanom Royal Thai Air Base (NKP) undertook this objective on May 13, 1975 to join with the forming USMC attack force. Knife-13, a CH-53C helicopter, crashed 37 miles from NKP and 18 Security Police and 5 Aircrewmembers lost their lives. The 56th is now stationed at Luke AFB, AZ, and last year observed the loss with a special Retreat Ceremony. This year there is planned a special Memorial and annual Retreat on May 16, 1997, and a Security Police Combat Dining Out on May 17, 1997.
