

I Don't Know What Happened

A nurse...why did he have to be a man...told me I was in Japan.

Why...how?

What happened...are they alright?

He told me what he had heard. No one I knew was there.

He said I would live, as he walked away, and that I was going home...

I never saw any of them again.

I read their names on The Wall; shoulder-to-shoulder, without mine.
