Sentry

Vietnam, I Cannot Die!

I just got here...

First night he stood as sentry standing tall, silhouetted, tall grass to his waist, unmoving. All other posts and bunkers hunkered in.

364-and-a-wake-up...I'm here if you want me—you can't miss—if so—it's my turn and I will kill you.

Withstanding the Hurt is hard to do.

War snaps away your brothers when most needed,
without goodbye, so long, fare thee well—

some point to the medevac Huey whopping away, and sometimes the pain is too great, and
...some have walked into the light.
