GENERAL MEETINGS - 1st Tuesday of EACH MONTH @ Zaloga Post at 7 pm

Since, there's NO Newsletter for May-June ; the following message from TCCVEV's President will suffice:

Joseph Pollicino's MAY Message: I hope All Members (182 Life & 36 Mbrs. paid for 2020) and their families are SAFE and in good health. With God's Blessings & our Prayers, this VIRUS will be done & all postponements and cancellations will end. During MAY, each American will remember those men and women who made the supreme sacrifice for our Freedom by visiting memorials and gravesites.

Since, there's NO Albany Memorial Day Parade; you and your family might enjoy a visit to the Albany County Vietnam Veterans Memorial & the Gold Star Families Memorial Monument in Lafayette Park; that would be a respectful gesture. Also, placing of FLAGS may be considered; don't forget "Social Distancing" and the wearing of masks....that's a PRIORITY but we won't know, until that time, "what's going on"!

JUNE could be on hold for events, too. Gov. Cuomo or Albany County Executive McCoy will decide - it all depends on the virus DATA, at the time. "Run for the Fallen" is Cancelled but there could be runners, participating, on their own. AGAIN, we will be posting UPDATES on our Website = www.tccvev.com AND on our 2 FACEBOOK sites: 1) Tri County Council Vietnam Era Veterans (TCCVEV) and 2) Tri-County Council Vietnam Era Veterans. Please, be safe & keep healthy - "until we meet again"!

TAPS: Life Mbr Dr. John Christy (took care of Tommy Marinello, in Japan and Peter Nardolillo's Wife, Kathy's father, Jack Sleasman.....may they Rest in Peace. God Bless them and their families.

"Together THEN - Together NOW"

God Bless America!

Remember OUR Veteran!
