The Great I Am

(c) 2014 by Don Poss

How infinite is God...
There at the beginning
The creation
The breath of life to Adam
The flood
Parting of the sea
And all through the eyes of the living in real time, He watched mountains wither to valleys and depress into oceans. Saw countless stars blaze alive and named them one by one.

Generations lived and died
Like brief flickers of light...a wavering vapor

Eternal is the I Am.

Not enough to live the life
Without sharing what life you are living, an eternal relationship with God awaits the few,
Judgment is his jest.

Earthly death His passion.
