

Cannon AFB, 27th Security Forces Squadron

Remembers SSgt Jensen

Đà Nẵng AB Attack . . . July 1, 1965

Submitted by Mike Bush (MSgt, USAF Security Police - Retired)

CANNON AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. -- A monument is revealed in front of the 27th Special Operations Security Forces Squadron building May 15 [2009].

The monument honored Staff Sgt Terance Jensen, of the 35th Air Police Squadron at Đà Nẵng Air Base, Republic of Vietnam, as part of national police week events.

Sergeant Jensen was the only fatality in the second major attack on a U.S. Air Base July 1, 1965. (U.S. Air Force photo/Airman 1st Class James Bell)

CANNON AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. -- Chaplain (Capt.) Eusebia Rios, of the 27th Special Operations Wing Chapel, gives a word of prayer for Staff Sgt Terance Jensen's memorial at the Security Forces building May 15. The service was a part of national Police Week. (U.S. Air Force photo/Airman 1st Class James Bell)

CANNON AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. -- Chief Master Sgt Daniel Fischer, 27th Special Operations Wing command chief, pays his respects to Staff Sgt Terance Jensen memorial May 15. Air Commandos can view the memorial as they walk into the Security Forces building. (U.S. Air Force photo/Airman 1st Class James Bell)

We Take Care of Our Own

Vietnam Security Police Squadron, Inc. (USAF)

2 of 2