Commander's Message

Throughout the Christian world, the Christmas season is a time of joy and spiritual inspiration. Despite separation from our families and the hardships imposed by war, those of us in Vietnam will still share the traditional Christmas spirit this year. We can enjoy the spiritual satisfaction that comes from giving. As fighting representatives of the Free World, our gift is the help we give the Vietnamese people to secure their independence, their individual safety, and their future freedom. Each of you gives a part of this gift and deserves the satisfaction of having increased the happiness of others—the true Christmas spirit.

My best wishes to each of you and your families for the Christmas season. May you enjoy good fortune during the coming year.

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER

Almighty God, We praise Thee that Thou mysteriously waitest to touch with light and to fill with love the hearts of those who wait before Thee. We praise Thee that Thou hast made this day glad and this night bright with the memory of the birth of One who revealed the might and gentleness of Thy Spirit. We praise Thee that, in the fullness of time and in Thine own way, Thou didst cause One to walk the dusty roadways of this world who was, indeed, the Son of Thy Spirit and the shadowing forth in flesh of Thy tender love. Accept our gratitude, offered in joy, for this most wondrous showing forth of Thy love. Grant, on this day when we rejoice in the nativity of Jesus Christ, that, like His, our heart may be made humble; that, like His, our life may be so ordered before Thee that it shall show forth Thy praise. We bless Thee. We glorify Thee. We give Thee thanks that heaven and earth are so full of Thy glory. Amen.

A BLESSED CHRISTMAS TO ALL !

GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN

There you were, in a foreign land on Christmas.....

Alone, cold, lonely.....and yet it was required that you stay alert,, for the enemy was always there, somewhere.

Be assured that your loved ones thought of you on that Christmas Eve, just as you no doubt, thought of them.

They would have rejoiced in your presence if only you could have come home to them. But you had your duty, and you did your duty, despite the hardships.

Years have passed, and you are no longer huddled in a rice paddy or standing guard in a tower. Yet, sometimes in the stillness of the night, memories flood your mind. May God bless you for your loyalty and dedication and your willingness to suffer so we might continue to have our freedoms. To this day, I honor you and respect you for your service.

May this Christmas hold peace and joy for you, and the knowledge that you served honorably. You are my true brother and you have touched my life.

My best,

Erlyce
