

Phù Cát Air Base 37th Security Police Squadron 1968-1969

© 2002 Photo Journal, by Bill Marshall

First let me thank VSPA for the outstanding work done with the organization's web site. Being a very new member I can't express to you in words what it means to make this connection with a part of my life that has lived in the dark too long. I have always been proud of my military service and those that I served with, but finding the VSPA site has enhanced my knowledge and appreciation for the contribution that we as "security police" made in Vietnam. I am a proud Vietnam veteran who is pleased to see our story told by "our own" in words and pictures which honors our service and remembers those who paid the ultimate sacrifice. Keep up the good work! That said, pictures of Phù Cát Air Base were taken during my tour of 1968-1969. Thanks! Bill.

1. Home Sweet home

2. & 3. (composite) Phù Cát AFB (water tower post).

4. Run up area south end of runway.

5. Fuel storage area

6. "Mac" Law enforcement mascot.

7. Red Horse recreation area (names

8. ROK camp adjacent to base.

9. Front gate looking towards Hwy-1.

10. Front gate Phù Cát

11. Reventment area F-100s.

12. Front gate mamasas leaving base.

13. (below) The troops (center front holding dog Bill Marshall).

14. Waiting for the steaks to cook

15. Pass and ID front gate

16. Phù Cát flight line and reventment areas

17. Rice paddy around perimeter

18. "The Strip" from front gate.

19. Perimeter area Phu Cat

20.

21. Farmers working the rice fields next to base

22. Buddhist temple near by.

23. Sapper attack area March 1969.

24. Recognize anyo

25. Monument near Phù Cát base.

26. Anyone look famili

27. Buddhist temple near base.

28. Vietnamese home along "The Stri

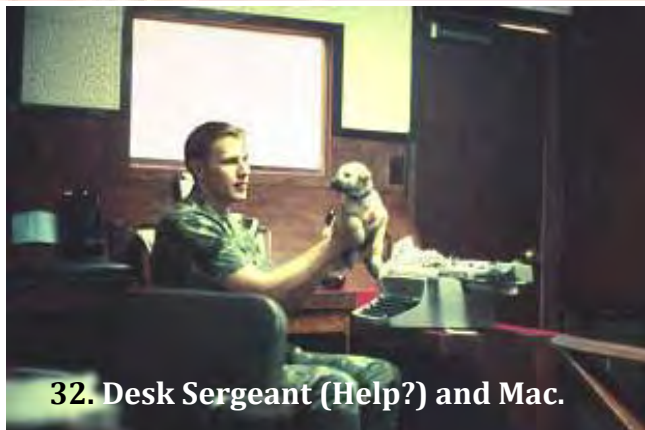

29. SSgt. Bo Halverson.

30. Waiting for R&R lift to Australia.
L/R: Don Mayes, Pete Vires, unknown.

31. Vietnamese (K-Mart)

32. Desk Sergeant (Help?) and Mac.

33. (Beautiful-Girls) never located.

34. R&R Bound, Sydney Australia.

35. First Little Piggy Loved Hamm's beer.

36. Anyone look familiar?

We Take Care of Our Own