

Here is a view of the hills of the south end of Phu Cat Air Base.

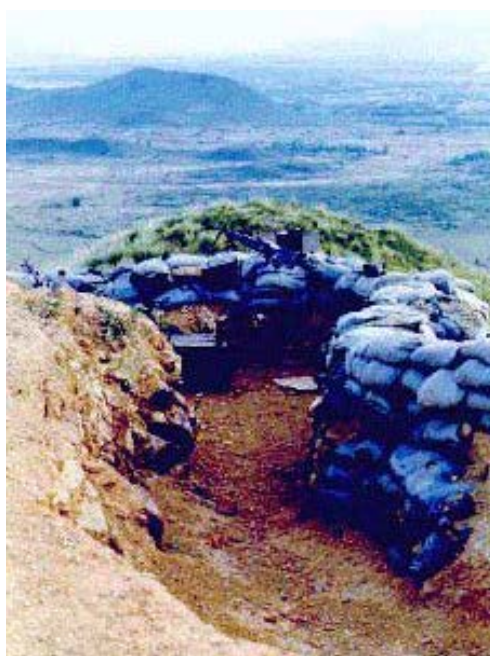

The Combat Security Police squadron had an OP on the top of one of the hills (left side).

Security Police went up for two or three days and nights at the Out Post, which had one or two bunkers and a small trench line.

We had several M60's, grenade launchers, and plenty of C-rations.

A ring of barb wire was at the top, with a mine field below it.
