

Forgive And Forget?

When You Aton

© 2002, by Jackie kays

I went, you went and
So did thousands of others!
Many never returned, yet there were scores that refused to go!
They fled to the four corners of earth,
cowardly refusing to serve.
That jungle war was fifty years ago.
Some say forgive and forget!
I will forgive and forget when hell freezes over and the sun burns out!
