

When War Harvest Comes Calls

(c) 2022 by Don Poss

Harvest another crop of southern boys to fight another twenty-years war.

They come running by tens of thousands—
a frightful sight— corn-fed hooping' and hollerin'
with all their might, to fight and battle as they always have, for God'n Country and the girls back home.

The game of war they played as kids,
and now and then ...
here it comes again,
Ugly and Heartless, the War Harvest Calls.
