Nui Dat Air Base was an Australian military base in South Vietnam during the Vietnam War, constructed in 1966.

Gents: A new rare Phan Rang AB tower/bunker photo has been located and shows a K-9 Kennels sign for the 35th SPS, with a hill in the background and a tower and bunker(s) on the hilltop. Nothing is known about the photo. Please check out the photo at photo with a hilltop tower/bunker and if you recall the's post name, ever worked that post, know what the view is on 'the other side of the hill',who the photographer was, or the approximate 'year' of the photo, please reply to this email so that information can be included with the photo.
