

Graphic Humor...

Rubber Band Man

© 2001

by Mark Brooks
8th SPS, Ubon RTAFB, 1972-1973

One of the Thai Police Special Action Force members I worked with was really funny. Thid had this practice of wearing a grenade on his web belt. What made Thid a little odd was that the pin for the grenade was kept in his locker at the barracks--the only thing holding the spoon in place was a rubber band. After a few times working with him I finally got around to asking him about it. "Hey Thid, what are you going to do if the rubber band breaks in the jeep?" Without hesitation, he said; "Die young, kid." We all laughed!

Photo: The picture shows me (going clockwise Cpl. Perrin, Sgt Sootah, Thid in front.

Opinions and comments expressed here are not necessarily those of the Vietnam Security Police Association, Inc (USAF)

Readers' responses to stories may be added as an addendum to the story, or may be forwarded to the author, but will not be posted at the Bulletin Board, nor become public. Nevertheless, no one can guarantee complete anonymity, confidentiality, nor that what is expressed or published here will not make it into the public sector of the web.

Submit

© 1996 by Vietnam Security Police Association, Inc. (USAF). All Rights Reserved.

We Take Care of Our Own

Click to Report BROKEN LINKS or Photos, or Comment