COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

The necessity for keeping the defense of our nation strong and alert has placed you a long way from home on a holiday that is traditionally a family affair. Your family, along with millions of other Americans, will thank God this day that you protect our country. Traditionally, Thanksgiving stands for your neighborhood church, friends and family, the smell of fall in the air, your favorite college football game, turkey and pumpkin pie. But it also stands for much more . . . a nation founded on the principles of hard won freedom, a nation of plenty with equal opportunities for all. We should never forget that in Vietnam our actions are defending free men everywhere. We pray that peace will come to all the world and that all of us can return to our loved ones in the not too distant future.

Verans

CREGHTON W. ABRAMS General, United States Army Commanding
