

Mission, Purpose, & Warning

Almost from day-one of VSPA's webpages, members have sent in stories and photos that could not be published at VSPA's family-rated page. And for that we have all missed out. Missed out in that we experienced what happened to us and our friends. Our purpose at VSPA is to tell every story, show every photo, and report the history and lineage of every base Air Police and Security Police served at in the Vietnam War. We can never meet those worthy goals without telling the complete stories (sometimes in rude language) and showing photos that include horror and graphic death.

For many, it would be better not to enter these pages or revisit the scars of decades past. For those experiencing PTSD, I urge you to consider it might be best for you not go there at all.

We saw it...

And now, we are going to tell it like it was for those members amongst us who would remember...

what they cannot forget.

Restricted Access: Purpose & Mission

We Take Care of Our Own
