

Brothers Forever

© 1992, by Chaplain Steve Janke

Friends made in a combat zone are friends whose souls are knit.
People whose metal was tested and whose lives flowed together every bit.
Time and space do not separate those who fought and tasted fate.
God above knows this bond of soldier, this bond of men.
It is sometimes the only good we can see of war...
when we can make this kind of friend.

