

I'll Always Be There!

I'll Always Be There!

When you see a dust devil whirling across the road...

think of me, I'll be there!

When you hear the moaning of a lonely train whistle
in the middle of the night...

think of me, I'll be there!

When the leaves of color fall in the late autumn air...

think of me, I'll be there!

When the first snow flake falls...

think of me, I'll be there!

When you see a falling star race across God's heavenly sky...

think of me, I'll be there!

When a summer breeze drifts through an open window
and the curtain lightly flutters...

think of me, I'll be there!

When you hear the song "Amazing Grace"

think of me, I'll be there!

When loneliness is too much to bear...

think of me, I'll be there!

When you feel that no one cares...

think of me, I'll be there!

When the pain is beyond repair ...

think of me, I'll be there!

When you feel that the last spark of love has gone out...

just reach out, for you my darling...

I'll always be there!

Dedicated to my darling wife, Wanda Lee
