VIETNAM: I Love My Job

(c) 2014, by Don Poss

I lie in wait for that special date
When I will hasten you to your maker.

Pain free it'll be, me you'll never see nor hear the bang in your brain.

Your head will explode, guts implode,
and bowls erupt like a colostomy bag
air burst.

Your Beans and Wieners C-Ration lunch will provide a great brunch for a cockroach family of three.

Sin Loi'bout the mess...
Have a nice Day... well, morning at least :)

On the bright side: I shouldn't need to fire the claymores, and your feet won't hurt anymore.
