Telling it like it was!

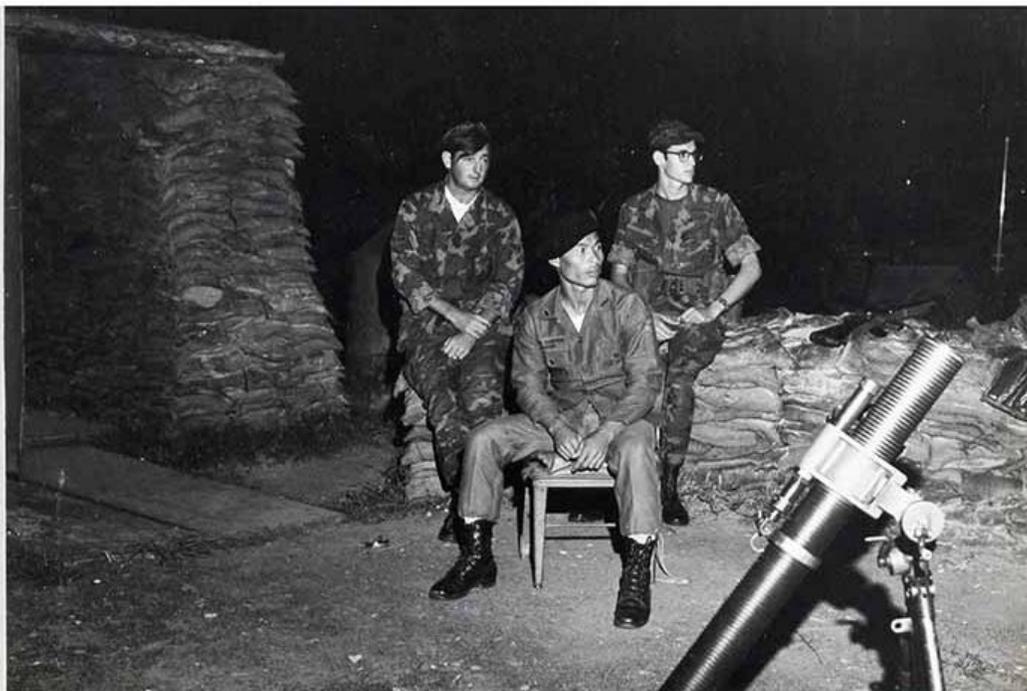

Here are some photos I have of heavy weapons, main gate and tower at NKP. The main gate was moved from the other photo on the main gate page to this location in the summer of 1971.

5. THEY WATCH AND WAIT -- A1C James A. Brady, left, A1C Wilfred R. Wright and Thai Guard Kuang took a moment to pose for the camera but still kept searching Nakhon Phanom's perimeter for intruders. With radio communications to the base's Central Security Control they can light up a large area on command in moments. (USAF PHOTO BY SSGT. KELLY SHUMAN)

This black and white photo for the NKP base paper story was supposed to run in the base paper but was pulled by someone in back office because they said Jim Brady's hair was too long and we were too far from our weapons.
