

Phù Cát Air Base
12th Security Police Squadron
Sentry Dog Section
K-9, Smokey A912 (AKA: Flop)
© 2004, by Jim Hart

12TH SECURITY POLICE SQ.

SENTRY DOG SECTION

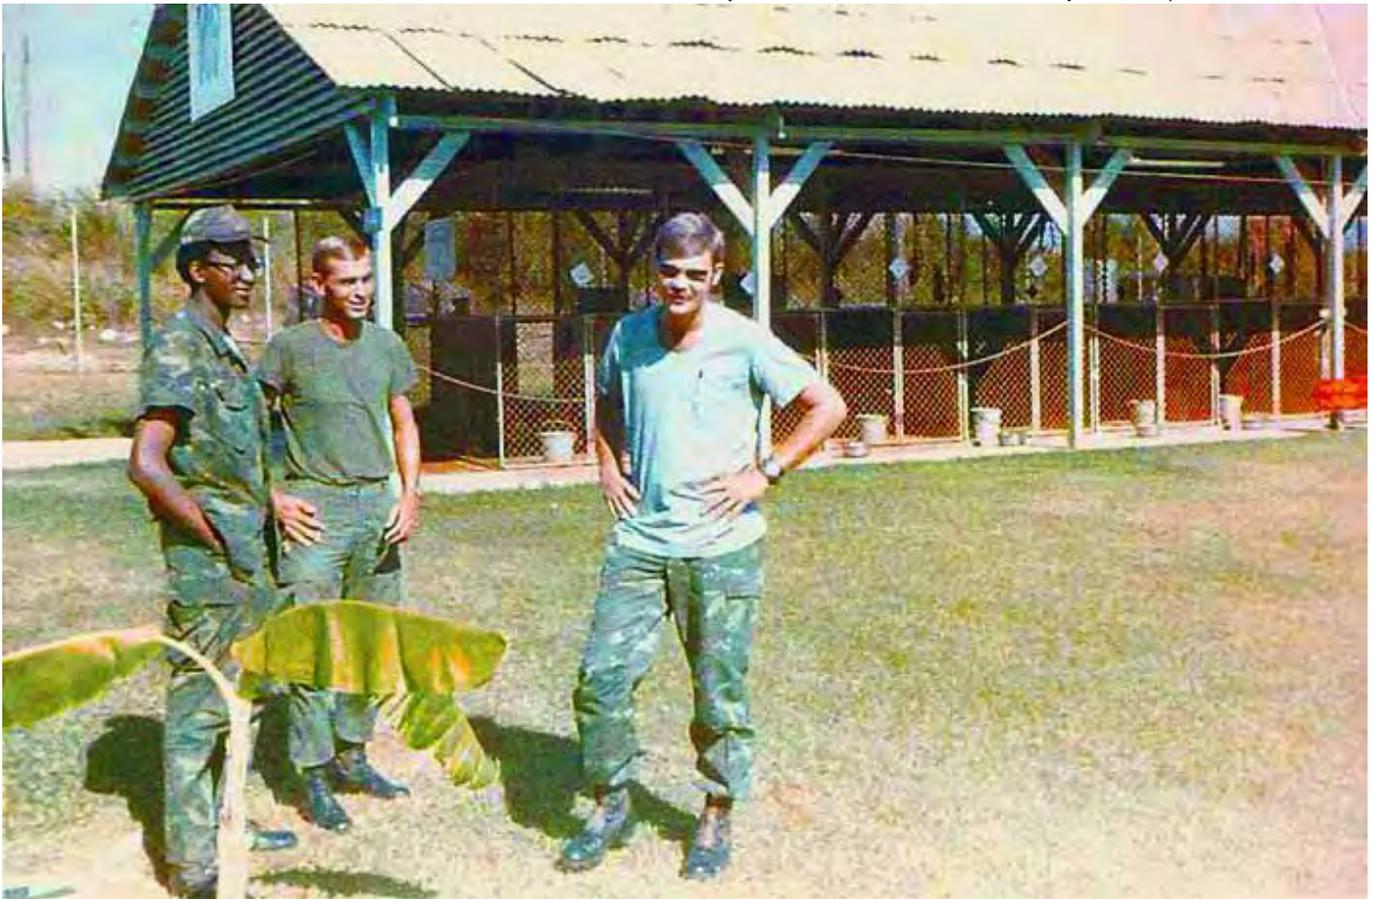

1. Jim Hart and K-9 Flop, 12th Security Police Squadron, K-9 Section.

2. K-9 Kennels, Guardmount area and posting area.

3. K-9 Kennels Sign.

4. Veterinarian on right, Vet. Assistant on left, and TSgt Houston in middle.

5. Inside kennel area looking North, Tower: Tango-5.

6. Inside kennel area looking North, Close up of Tower: Tango-5.

7. K-9 Kennels: K-9 Flop.

8. Outside Kennels, looking East.

9. Flop and Jim ready for another night.

10. Phù Cát K-9 Guardmount, Sgt Smith giving security report (riding herd).

11. Two good friends:
Randy Diedrich, K-9 on left,
and Mike Adcock, K-9 on right. We all went through Dog School together, and then on to Nam.

12. Close up: Randy Diedrich, K-9 on left, and Mike Adcock, K-9 on right.

13. Posting truck, right side, front of truck to tailgate back: Mike Adcock and K-9 Ti middle Airman is Chuck Helms, with Eric # 2A57, and Jim Hart with K-9 Flop.

14. Posting truck: Jim Hart with K-9 Flop.

15. Close up: Jim Hart with K-9 Flop, bone weary and posting for another long night.
[VSPA has well over 12,000 photos posted at this website. Subjectively, I have long considered this single photo of Jim Hart, and Smokie (AKA: Flop, A912) as the most most outstanding representative photo portraying exhaustion and weariness, as experienced by USAF Air/Security Police in Thailand and Vietnam during the Vietnam War.]

Don Poss, VSPA / War-Stories.com Webmaster]

16. Mark Burns, K-9 , 038M.

17. K-9 and security getting together.

18. Mamasan.

19. Bomb Dump.

20. Looking North from Phù Cát Air Base.

21. Looking Northwest, Bravo 13.

22. Huts outside Phù Cát Air Base, on north end.

23. Phù Cát AB Control Tower.

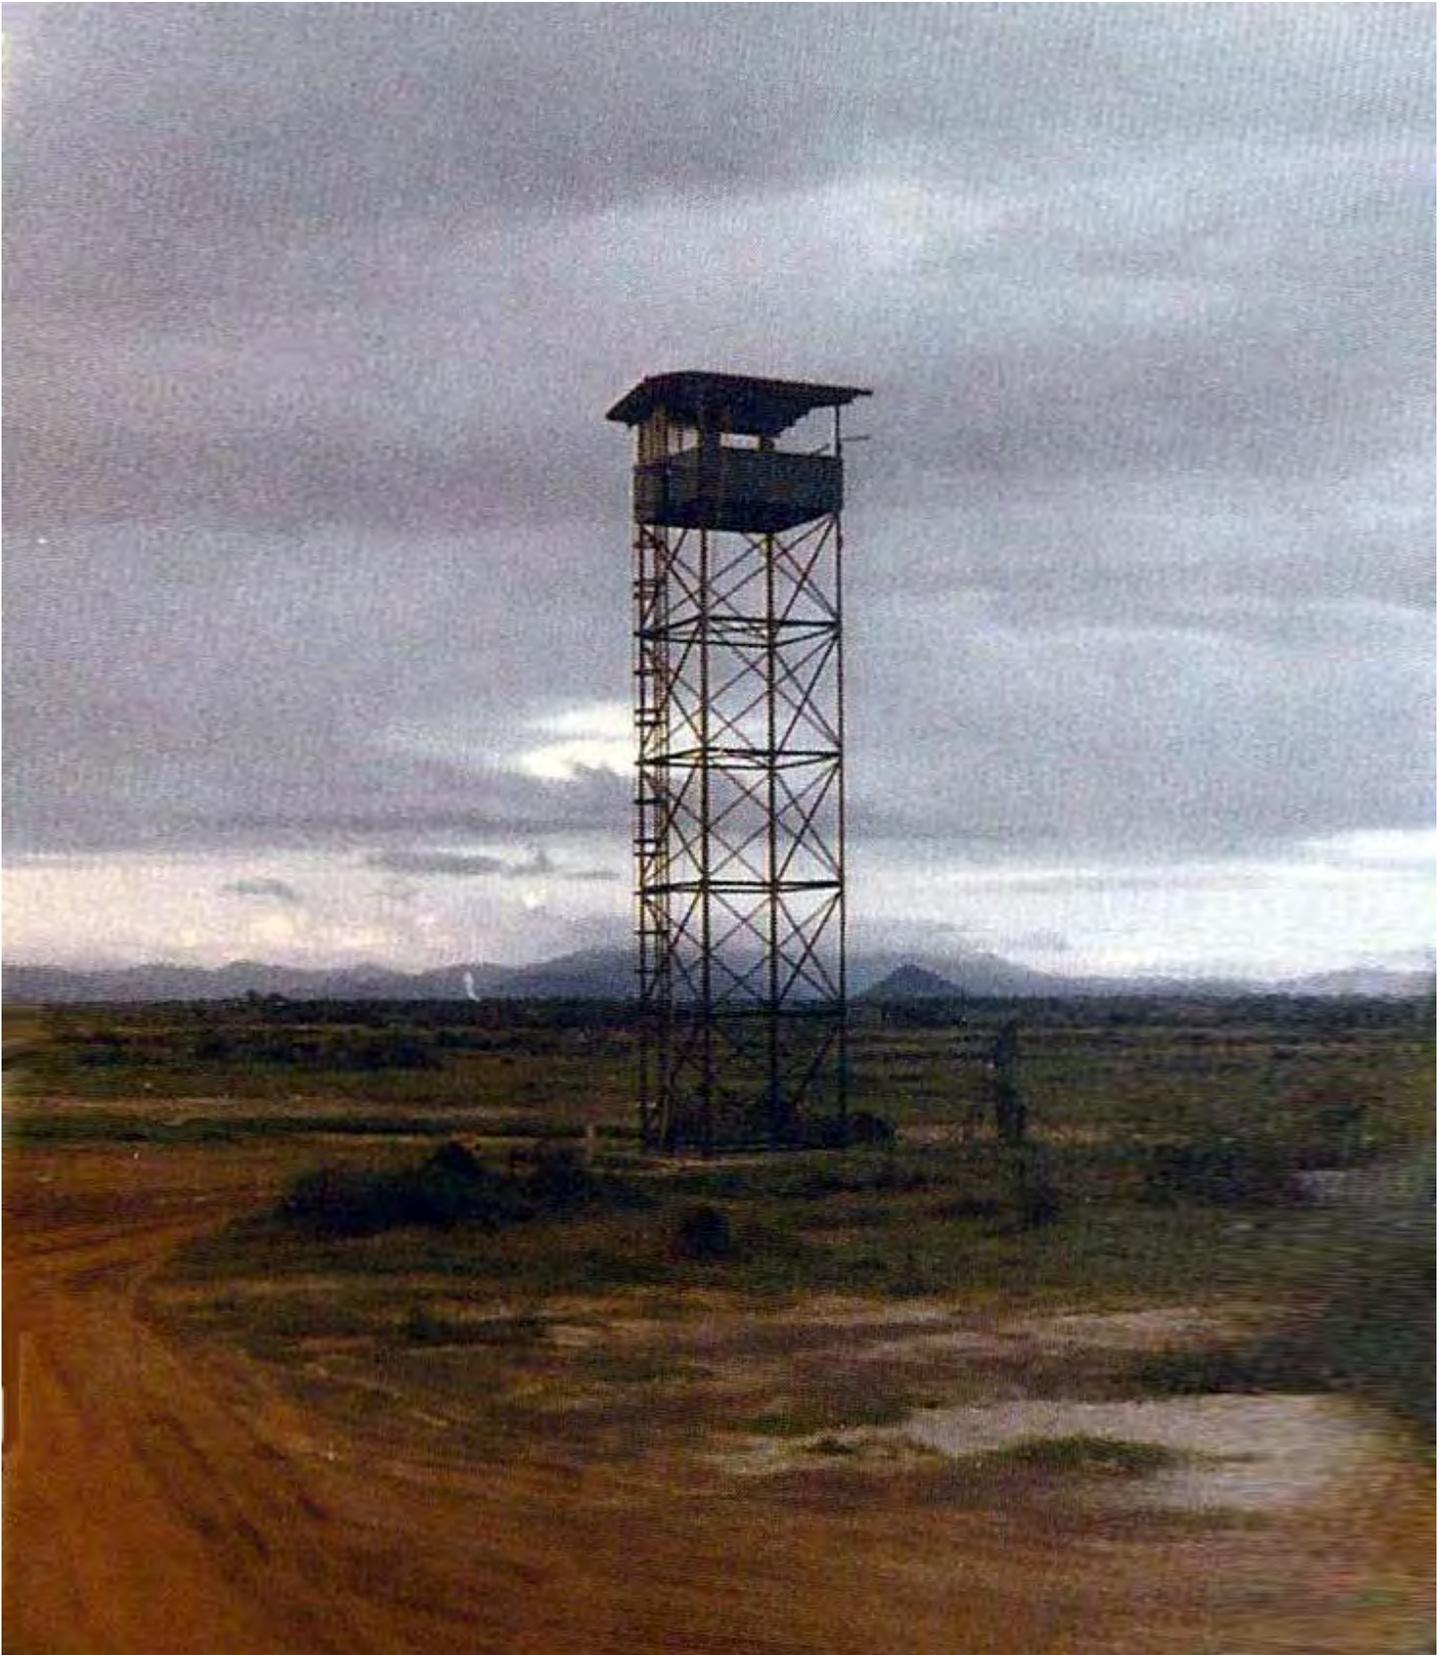

24. F-4 Phantom, rolling take-off (looking North).

25. Phù Cát - Southwest side.

26. Jim's K-9 Flop, Westside of Bravo 25.

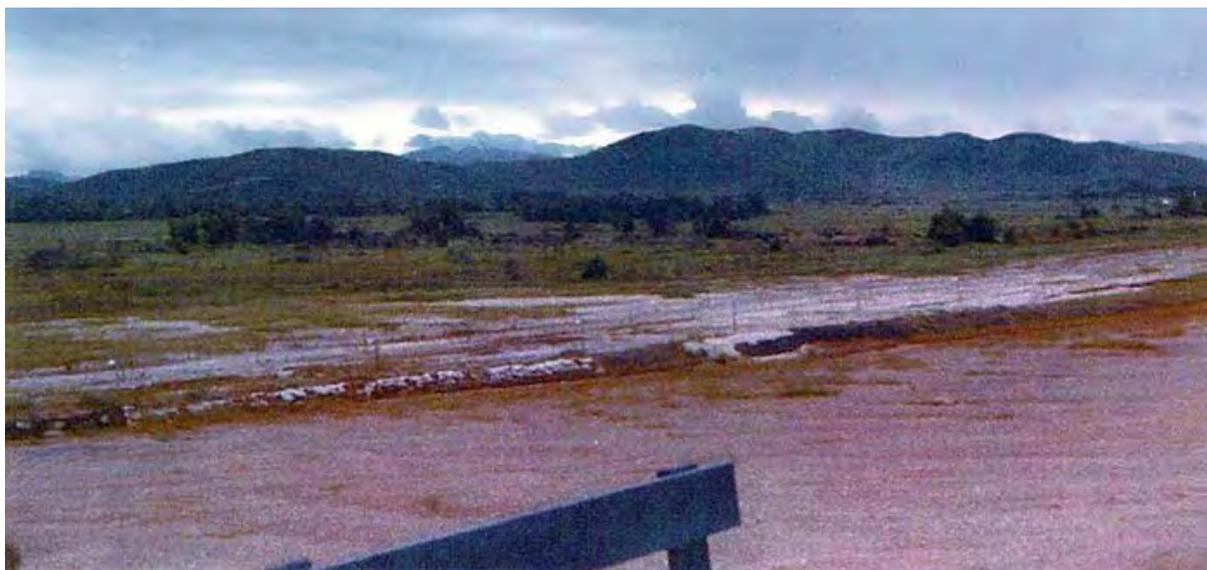

27. Tango-13, Northeast side. Distant column of smoke (Center/Left)

28. Close up of Tango-13, Northeast side.

29 . Eastside, Bravo 9 or 10.

30. Phù Cát, Northwest side. Hill 151 on left.

31. Phù Cát, Northwest side. Hill 151 on left.

We Take Care of Our Own