

Lt Col Grove C. Johnson, Commander, 377th Security Police Squadron, is on one of the SAT (Security Alert Team) Patrols.

On this particular night, he is serving a piece of steak and a small drink to a couple of his men on the perimeter.

Some SAT teams, would come by to offer you water and coffee. On some occasions a small snack. Mostly to just chat with you. To make sure that you were okay and alert. They would normally stay from 5-10 minutes.

Many of the officers of the 377th Security Police Squadron did this on a regular basis.